

Johan Venter

Member, Railway & Harbour Engineering Division, SAICE

johan@venter.co.za

Johan is a Fellow of SAICE and member of the Railways & Harbour Management Committee. He is a Civil Engineer, Railway Engineer, Project Manager and Transport Economist, and has 40-year experience in the railway industry, starting at SAR&H and SA Transport Services. He has been involved in policy formulation, strategy development, feasibility studies and implementation of large railway projects, notably as project manager for Gautrain from inception to operations.

Qualifications: BSc.Eng (Civil), B.Eng. (Hons) (Construction Project Management) B.Com. (Hons) (Transport Economics)

Professional Affiliations: Fellow of SAICE, Professional Engineer (ECSA), Project Management Professional (PMP®) with PMI.