

Phindile Sibanyoni

Member, Railway & Harbour Engineering Division, SAICE

Phindilesibanyoni1@gmail.com

As committee member, Phindile is responsible for serving and adding value on engineering and technical issue arising. She is an Engineering Technologist in the permanent way and civil. Phindile has ten years of experience in the rail network industry. She has been exposed to asset condition assessment, construction, maintenance and rehabilitation of rail network infrastructure through identifying, prioritizing, investigating, classifying and planning for critical engineering problems with an objective to establish safe, and economic engineering solutions.

Qualifications: BTech Degree Civil Engineering

Professional Affiliations: Engineering Council of South Africa (ECSA) candidate, Project Management Professional (PMP), South African society for Railway Engineering (SASRE), South African Heavy Haul Association (SAHH)